

Make your own Koinobori Flag!

glue or tape here

A koinobori is a flag in the shape of a koi carp which is flown in Japan on May 5th for Children's Day. They are normally flown in pairs of three, with a large black koi, a medium red koi, and a small blue koi. They represent the parents and children in a family.

1. Print out this sheet
2. Colour in your koinobori and add any extra decorations
3. Cut out the template
4. Fold and glue or tape the template into a tube shape
5. Attach a string and hang up or fly!